

Abstract
Graduation Level of Proficiency Paper
(Bachelor's degree)

The theme of the graduation thesis: Asyndetic complex sentences in the modern Russian language.

Author: Mokeykina Ekaterina Nikolaevna.

Scientific supervisor: Doctor of pedagogical sciences, professor of the Department of literature and pedagogical technologies of philological education L.N.Isaev.

Research Initiator: Pyatigorsk State University.

The topical importance is determined by the disputable problem of the asyndetic complex constructions. There are various concepts and trends in studying the syntax asyndetic complex sentence. Therefore, the correct interpretation and understanding these constructions are extremely important for students. Various forms of asyndetic connection are rarely used by students in both oral speech and written form. That is why activating the usage of asyndetic complex constructions in students' speech is a necessary component in the process of learning the syntax of the Russian language.

The aim of the proficiency paper is to study the asyndetic complex constructions in the modern Russian language and peculiarities of their usage in works of art "Hero of our time" by M.Y.Lermontov and "Notes of a hunter" by I.S.Turgenev.

Objectives of the research:

- 1) to define the characteristics of asyndetic connection in a composite sentence;
- 2) to outline the approaches in the study of asyndetic sentences;
- 3) to analyze this problem at school;
- 4) to trace the peculiarities of functioning of asyndetic sentences in works of art on the "The hero of our time" by Lermontov and "Notes of a hunter" by Turgenev.

Theoretical and practical significance of the research. The results of the study allow to enlarge view on asyndetic sentences in the modern Russian language based on the study of literary texts. The materials of the research paper, generalizations and conclusions can be used in teaching the Russian language in high school, particularly in studying the asyndetic complex sentences. They can also be used in the work on the integration of the courses "Russian language" and "Literature".

The results of the study are to consider asyndetic complex sentences in the modern Russian language on the basis of the works "Hero of our time" by M. Y. Lermontov and "Notes of a hunter" by I.S.Turgenev and methodological possibilities of studying asyndetic connection in the school course. The functioning of the asyndetic complex constructions in text is a means of giving special stylistic values of the literary text and performs a communicative function. The acquisition of knowledge concerning asyndetic complex sentences in elementary school is one of the main directions in the formation of syntactic knowledge and skills of the students.