

SUMMARY

Subject of the research: Proper names as common nouns in the intercultural space of the German language

Author: Dolgova Elena Gennad'evna

Supervisor: Candidate of Philological Sciences, associate Professor of Department of German studies and intercultural communication Shavkun Natalia Sergeevna

Subject Matter: are morphological and linguistic characteristics of proper names in the intercultural space of the German language

Topicality of research is an attempt to consider in detail the proper names that have passed into the category of common names, to study their etymology, the dynamics of their development in everyday speech and to identify the features of the nomination of the German language.

Objective of the research: is to determine the role of proper name in the intercultural space of the German language

The tasks of the research:

1. to determine the role of a proper name in the development of culture and its language status;
2. consider devilishly and its role in the process of word formation;
3. to identify the main factors contributing to denominational process;
4. to perform place-name elements, which were derived from proper names as components of composites;
5. consider appellatives as an element of phraseology, Proverbs and sayings.

The theoretical significance of the work seems to us that: 1) in the course of our research, we have studied our own as an object of philological, cultural and historical research; 2) considered the features of the names that have passed into the category of appellatives; 3) identified their role in the composition of the German language; 4) considered the proper names as a component of phraseological units, Proverbs and sayings in the German language.

In practical terms, the study of this phenomenon has direct access to the practice of teaching and communication in German. According to the results of the study can be compiled textbooks, lecture courses on lexicology, culture of speech linguoculturology.

The results of the research:

1. Intercultural space allows creating a dialogue of cultures, in the process of which the participant of communication is able not only to reveal similarities and differences of language, tradition and culture as a whole, but also to "go" beyond the native language and culture, while plunging into another foreign language space.
2. During the work it was found that proper names are one of the main elements of the language, which carries information about the culture. The ways of transition of proper names to appellatives and the role of onyms in the word-formation system of the German language were revealed.
3. In the course of work the electronic game "Kluge Köpfe" was developed. This game can be used in the study of proper names, namely in practical classes in lexicology