

Summary

Subject Matter: Concept of "dumm" in everyday conversational speech of the modern German language

Author: student of the 8-th semester Krylova Anastasia Viadimirovna

Supervisor: Professor Malinin Boris Alekseevich

Topicality of the research: concept of "dumm" as one of the most important concepts in the vocabulary of the everyday conversational speech of the modern German language

The tasks of the research:

to analyze the concept as a linguistic category ; to review the most important characteristics of concept:

- to investigate the possibilities of realization of the "dumm" concept in adjectives and comparative phraseologisms of the German language;

The theoretical significance of the research is the review of realization possibilities of "dumm" concept in everyday conversational speech of the modern German language

The practical signification of the research is the analysis of lexical using of "dumm" concept in different aspects of the German language.

The results of the research: investigating of the phraseological aspects of the German language; several aspects of phraseology in Russian and German are successfully compared. The results of the work can be used in future investigations in Lexicology.