

The resume of the bachelor work «Problems of planning and realization of individual routes for the foreign citizens (using the example of the North-Caucasian Federal Region)»
by the degree seeker Pavel Domoytsev

The qualification work is devoted to the research of problems of planning and realization of individual routes for the foreign citizens. The author pays attention to the characteristics of modern development of the tourism industry in Russia and our region.

The work is divided into the introduction, two chapters, the conclusion and the bibliography.

The introduction includes the main concepts of the research.

The first chapter deals with the research of the special characteristics and perspectives of the modern tourism industry in the North-Caucasian Federal Region. The author pays attention to the concept individual routes, analyzes its perspectives.

The second chapter deals with the realization of individual routes for the foreign citizens. The author analyzes the principles of realization of such routes, shows different stages of planning.

The conclusion resumes all the main concepts of the research.

The bibliography consists of 25 sources.