Author: Yunaeva Alina Arsenovna

Supervisor: Ryashchenko Marina Aleksandrovna

The supervising organization: Pyatigorsk State University

The topicality of the research lies in the fact that language is a historical category and it can be understood only in its historical development. This particularly applies to grammar, for instance pronominal verbs.

The aim of the research is to observe the origins of language development and its phenomena, their analysis, on the example of the main aspects of pronominal verbs.

Objectives:

- To explore pronominal verbs in the Old French language;
- To explain their current use and their characteristic features.

The theoretical and practical value of the research lies in the further development of the theory of pronominal verbs in historical terms, in the fact that students and others can use its materials and findings.

The obtained results are in assembling data and writing the final qualifying work.

Recommendations: It is necessary to try to consider the linguistic phenomena, particularly grammatical ones in historical terms, to understand their nature better.
