

ABSTRACT

Graduation level of Proficiency Paper: Bachelor's degree.

Subject matter: The Inner Speech as a different form of linguistic communication by material of Spanish-language films.

Author: Bitokhova Karina

Supervisor of studies: Candidate of Philology, Ph. D., associate professor of Hispanic Studies and Intercultural Communication Kobyakova I.A.

Information about customer organization: "Pyatigorsk State Linguistic University".

Topical importance: to determine study of the inner speech as a connecting link between language and mind; define types of addressee of interpersonal communication using examples from Spanish-language films.

Goals: to find out signs of the inner speech, its structure and methods of its realization in Spanish language.

Tasks: to familiarize with basic researches dedicated to the inner speech; examine basic types of addressee of interpersonal communication; investigate methods of the inner speech transmission; consider endophasia in the context of stylistics using films as an example.

Theoretical value and practical applicability: consists in description of this phenomenon, types of addressee of interpersonal communication, structural and stylistic organization of the inner speech; the practical applicability is represented by possibility to use points of research during the study of theme "The Inner Speech" in the Stylistics subject.

Implementation advice: to use points of investigation in different psychological and linguistic subjects.