

Summary

Subject matter (TeMa): Personal names in French.

Author: Zhadanova Olga Sergeyevna

Supervisor of studies: Keleynikova Alia Gueorguievna

Information about customer organization: Chair of French philology and the intercultural communications

Topicality of the research: is defined, by a necessary complex description of the system of French names and surnames, which would take into account not only language system but also context-speech features of above-mentioned notions. The topicality of the research is also defined by an absence of a good readiness question about different positions of French names and surnames.

Objectives of the research: a complex analysis of French names and surnames' system including its features in a context-speech situation.

Tasks of the research:

- 1) To analyze a theoretical linguistic literature of French names and surnames.
- 2) To realize historical analysis of French names and surnames to identify historical factors which influenced on a system formation of names in French.
- 3) To identify fundamental grammar categories of names in French.
- 4) To lay down a return dictionary of French names and surnames for identifying morphological characteristics of gender.
- 5) To analyze the features of using the articles before personal names.

Theoretical and practical significance: the research is based on a structural-functional method in works of L.M.Skrelina and on an etymological analysis. It was also used a context method of analysis with a quantitative assessment of phenomena in the research of functional properties of the examined notions.

Results of the research: there have been worked out syntactic means of semantic allocation can be applied for logical allocation.

Recommendations: the results of the research can be recommended to translators and interpreters, to professors of French linguistics working at different types of educational and linguistic programmes.