Abstract

Graduation Level of Proficiency Paper

Bachelors's degree

Title: Teaching foreign language with using web-resource "Skype" (English)

Author: Beglaryan M.A.

Research Supervisor: associate professor Tatiana Yarmina

Research Initiator: Institute of Foreign Languages and International Tourism

Topical Importance: is primarily due to the fact that the development of education in our days is closely connected with the increase of its information potential. In order to improve the efficiency of the educational process, it is necessary for teachers and students to master the information culture, as well as the computer-screen culture. It is necessary to expand the idea of available services and programs on the Internet, offering to consider their applicability in the educational process.

Goal: to identify the potential of Internet resource "Skype" for using in the field of foreign language teaching.

Tasks: to analyze the potential of Internet resource "Skupe"; to identify the possibility of Internet resources in the process of learning a foreign language; on the basis of the information collected to create collection of practical recommendations on the use of the program "Skype" recommended for use in the process of learning a foreign language.

Theoretical value: the research gives a specific and detailed analysis of the possibilities of "Skype" in the teaching of foreign languages.

Practical applicability: the result of the study is the possibility to use the developed types of Skype conferences in the educational process, presented in full in the brochure with guidelines.

Results: the study gathered extensive material on the topic of the study. In addition, a total analysis of various resources was carried out to identify the potential of the Skype program in teaching foreign languages.

Implementation advice: the result of the work was a brochure, which describes twenty options for using the "Skype" program for educational purposes. This brochure will expand the view of the school teacher about the possibilities of Skype program, which can be used in teaching.