

The resume of the bachelor work «Problems of planning and realization of innovative tours in the modern conditions of development of the tourism industry»
by the degree seeker Alexander Amanatov

The qualification work is devoted to the research of problems of planning and realization of innovative tours. The author pays attention to the characteristics of modern development of the tourism industry.

The work is divided into the introduction, two chapters, the conclusion and the bibliography.

The introduction includes the main concepts of the research.

The first chapter deals with the research of the special characteristics and perspectives of the modern tourism industry in Russia. The author pays attention to the concept innovative tourism, analyzes the perspectives of the tour Basketball festival.

The second chapter deals with the realization of innovative tour Basketball festival. The author analyzes the principles of the tour Basketball festival, shows different stages of planning.

The conclusion resumes all the main concepts of the research.

The bibliography consists of 24 sources.