Topical Importance: This diploma paper is devoted to such an activity as freelance caused by marked changes in the economy. Freelancers have become a new social community for the last 10 years, and the freelance - a new model of employment. A quality of content is getting better with the Global Network's development, and traditional mass media passes to a new level. Hence, modern journalists have an opportunity to work distantly and not to work for one and the single company. However, there are some disadvantages in freelancer-journalist's work, considering the fact, that requirements for online articles are lower than for typed ones.

Goal: The major goal of this study is to study all freelance opportunities as an additional specialty for journalist profession on the MIANO PSU basis; to work out the educational project 'The Freelance Basis for journalists' in order to provide future specialists with all the opportunities of the distant work.

Tasks: There is a number of tasks one should accomplish to achieve the above set goal:

- to investigate modern approaches to the thesis 'freelance';
- to analyze the main kinds of freelancer-journalist's activities;
- to systemize the characteristics of the freelance in Russian Internet space;
- to corroborate the necessity of discipline 'The Freelance Basis for journalists' on the MIANO PSU basis.

Theory: Journalism, mass communication theories, linguistic, sociology, economy and mass media management are considered to be the basis of our investigation.

Results: Short illustrated instruction 'Freelance for journalists' and, in addition, the ready educational plan for the discipline on the MIANO PSU 'The Freelance Basis for journalists'.
