

Summary

Theme of the final qualifying work: Communicative initiative in intercultural communication

Author: Babayan Narine Vardanovna

Supervisor: Candidate of Pedagogy, professor of the Department of Intercultural Communication, Linguodidactics, Pedagogical Technologies for teaching and education

The relevance of the research topic:

The communicative initiative in intercultural communication is considered in the context of the professional competence of a specialist of intercultural communication. The relevance of the research topic is due to the insufficient development of theoretical and practical issues related to the consideration of communicative initiatives in the context of professional intercultural communication and the peculiarities of its implementation, taking into account the cultural specifics of communicants.

The purpose of the work: theoretical justification of the role of communicative initiative in professional intercultural communication, development and description of recommendations for using communicative initiative, taking into account the cultural affiliation of a communication partner.

Tasks:

- to study theoretical approaches to the interpretation of the concept "communicative initiative";
- determine the role of communication initiative in professional communication and the structure of professional competence of a specialist of intercultural communication;
- consider the stages of a communicative initiative in professional intercultural communication;
- identify linguistic and cultural features of the manifestation of a communicative initiative with representatives of the English, German, French and Spanish cultures;
- develop and describe recommendations for a specialist in intercultural communication on the implementation of a communicative initiative in professional intercultural communication.

Theoretical significance of the research: consists in expanding scientific ideas about the communicative initiative as a component of the professional competence of a specialist in intercultural communication; generalization of existing theoretical provisions on the structure and implementation of the communicative initiative in professional communication.

Practical significance of the research: consists in the development and description of recommendations designed to expand ideas about the communicative initiative in the context of professional intercultural communication and improve the professional skills of an intercultural communication specialist to implement a communicative initiative with foreign communication partners.

Results of the research: theoretical issues related to the content of the concept of "communication initiative" and its role in professional intercultural communication are considered; the linguistic and cultural features of the manifestation of a communicative initiative with representatives of the English, German, French and Spanish cultures are analyzed, a description of recommendations for an intercultural communication specialist on the implementation of a communicative initiative in the process of intercultural dialogue is presented.

Recommendations: the results of the study and conclusions presented therein will be incorporated into the process of training future specialists of intercultural communication.