

Summary

Subject matter: Welfare action as a way of personal socialization in club-type cultural institutions (according to a case study of MPFIC «CAC «Predgorye» in Cossack village Yessentukskaya)

Author: Kolesnichenko Olga Yuryevna

Supervisor: Candidate of economic sciences, Associate Professor of the Department of Creative Innovative Management and Law Mai-Boroda Galina Nikolayevna

Contracting authority: MPFIC «CAC «Predgorye» in Cossack village Yessentukskaya

Topicality of the research: Development of activities in club-type cultural institutions for the organization of welfare actions

Objective of the research: Generalization of theoretical and practical aspects of welfare action as way of children socialization in club-type cultural institutions and project development of welfare action for children

The tasks of the research:

1. To consider a definition, principles of organization, kinds, parts and stages of realization of a welfare action
2. To describe a process of personal socialization in club-type cultural institutions
3. To give a readout for a welfare action as one part of activity in club-type cultural institutions
4. To describe methodological recommendations of model for a welfare action (as action for personal socialization)
5. To analyze a process of children socialization in MPFIC «CAC «Predgorye» in Cossack village Yessentukskaya
6. To develop a model for welfare action for children (as action for personal socialization)

The theoretical and practical significance of the research: Knowledge of special characteristics of welfare actions as way of personal socialization for children was extended as a result of research.

The practical significance of research is a development of welfare action as way of personal socialization in club-type cultural institutions. This project was also evaluated.

The result of the research: during the research a definition, principles of organization, kinds, parts and stages of realization of a welfare action were considered, and also theoretical and methodological recommendations of model for a welfare action (as action for personal socialization) were described.

In the research a process of personal socialization of children in club-type cultural institutions were analyzed in detail.

Summarized data, we have made conclusion that welfare action is promoted to socialization of the child

Analyzing work of MPFIC «CAC «Predgorye», we have made certain that actions are held there qualitatively, but there are not enough innovative methods and resources during the actions.

Recommendations: Project of welfare action as way of children socialization "Road to spaceward"