Topical Importance: The relevance of this work is due to the need to develop the communicative ability of students, which requires an increase in the efficiency of the organization of the educational process, the introduction of modern teaching technologies that contribute to the development of communicative skills and the insufficient development of this problem in the methodology of teaching a foreign language, in particular, on the use of game technologies in teaching foreign language oral speech. Also in this work, an attempt is made to analyze and structure the semantic fields. The interest of scientists in the theory of the semantic field is not weakening for the reason that the concept of the semantic field concentrates in itself the main problems of lexical semantics.

Tasks:

1. Analyze the basic concepts, terms and definitions of the game teaching method.
2. Determine the place of role play in teaching foreign languages.
3. Analyze the basic concepts, terms and definitions of the lexico-semantic field.
4. Reveal the specifics and conditions for the functioning of these lexical and semantic fields Hotel, Theater when creating scripts for role-playing games.

Theoretical value and Practical applicability: of the work lies in the fact that its results can be used in courses of lexicology, stylistics, in the course of general linguistics, as well as in the practice of teaching English.

Results: The results of the study are interesting and compelling. The conclusions are well-designed, robust and solid

Implementation advice: courses on lexicology, socio-linguistics and pragmalinguistics. The results of the current research can be also used by students when writing their research papers.
